By Scottie Taylor Iverson Ranchers, bankers, representatives from commercial real estate and the oil and gas industries were included in the crowd that gave a Western warm-up to the Colorado Cattlemen's Agricultural Land Trust celebration at the home of Arlene Mohler Johnson and Don Johnson. The Sunset BBQ fundraiser will be held Saturday, July 11 from 5-9 p.m. with cocktails, dinner, music and an auction at the Johnson/Hammond ranch located just 17 miles west of the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs. The attire is Western, of course, plus accommodations and shuttles are available from Colorado Springs. Admission is $150 per person or $250 for patron level. For further information and reservations: www.ccalt.org. The Colorado Cattlemen's Agricultural Land Trust protects Colorado's agricultural land, heritage and families for future generations by conserving working rural landscapes.
